Course Goals  After finishing this course the student should be able to give a general outline of the history, prime characters, and Christian Doctrine of the New Testament. They should understand the basic historical background of the NT, be familiar with the lives and activities of Jesus and Paul, will understand how the various NT books fit in with the NT History, and will have learned the basic contents of the NT books, along with brief outlines of the primary NT books.

Attendance One absence will be allowed without penalty. Additional unexcused absences will affect the final grade. Class preparedness and participation will also be considered in the final grade.

978-0802836113

Reading Assignments
1. You will be required to make a New Testament reading plan.
2. You will be assigned a reaction paper for each textbook reading assignment.

Maps You will be required to turn in a map showing the region of Palestine during the life of Christ, its main political divisions, cities, bodies of water, and locations where Christ ministered. You will prepare a separate map of the life and travels of Paul, including the Roman provinces and major cities where he ministered.

Examinations There will be a midterm and a final examination. These examinations will be based on the textbook.

Classes will meet on Monday Nights 6-9 pm, Mt. Olive room.

01/10/2010