OLD TESTAMENT SURVEY
(OT 113)

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is a general survey of the entire Old Testament, including history, geography, and literature. The origin and growth of the Hebrew nation are emphasized.

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this course the student should be able to:
a. Set forth the major divisions of the Old Testament.
b. Identify the traditionally recognized authors of the Old Testament.
c. Discuss the major themes and purpose of each Old Testament book.
d. Be familiar with the key words, people and ideas of the Old Testament.
e. Identify Christological passages and types.

III. COURSE TEXTBOOKS AND RESOURCES
a. Required Books
b. Recommended Books
   John H. Walton Chronological and Background Charts of the Old Testament

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING
a. Read the assigned readings (20%)
b. Exams over class discussion and of the text books (60%)
c. Attend class and contribute to the class discussion in a manner that will reveal that the assigned materials have been read. (10%)
d. Reading Reflection Journal (10%)

V. COURSE SCHEDULE
   WEEK/TOPIC AND ASSIGNMENT (TO BE ANNOUNCED IN CLASS)

---

1 You can reach the professor by e-mail: tylerabs@hotmail.com

2 This class meets on Mondays in the Mt. Olive room from 6:00-9:00 p.m.