§ EV 521—Special Studies in Evangelism: Apologetics §
Course Syllabus

Course Description and Objectives:

This course allows a student to explore different emphases in evangelism as applied to different age groups, cults, world religions, or as applied in specialized geographical settings. Particular goals, skills, and requirements will be selected according to the individual needs of the student. This particular session will focus on developing a Biblical philosophy of, and skills in, basic apologetics.

Evangelism 311 is a prerequisite. Students will serve as trainers during all OJT sessions with EV 311.

Textbooks/Required Reading:

- James Kennedy, Evangelism Explosion 4th Ed. & EE Level III notebook (BMATS)
- John Frame, Apologetics to the Glory of God (265 pages), ISBN # 0-8755-2243-2
- Richard Pratt, Every Thought Captive (143 pages), ISBN # 0-8755-2352-8

Reporting on Required Reading:

- James Kennedy, Evangelism Explosion 4th Ed. & EE Level III notebook
  All questions filled in and answered fully by Feb 26

- Richard Pratt, Every Thought Captive (265 pages)
  Answer the review questions at the end of chapters 1-13, with the following chapter due dates:

  March 12.................................................................................................................... Chapters 1-4
  March 26.................................................................................................................... Chapters 5-8
  April 9....................................................................................................................... Chapters 9-13

- John Frame, Apologetics to the Glory of God (265 pages)
  One page per chapter, double-spaced, due April 30
Additional Reading:

Students will read and report on other selections related to apologetics of their choice totaling 1200 pages (one paragraph, single-spaced, per chapter).

Reading done in scholarly journals will be counted 2 pages for 1.

Reading assignments are due at the BMATS campus April 30. E-mail, c.d.’s or faxed copies are NOT acceptable.

Grading:

- Attendance and class participation 40%
- Quality and promptness of reading reports 30%
- Final exam 30%

The content of this syllabus is subject to revision as announced in regular class periods.