§ EV 511—Biblical Evangelism I
Evangelism Explosion Summer 2012 §
Course Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The course consists of class lectures and “on-the-job” training in personal evangelism. The program followed is Evangelism Explosion’s Share Your Faith (SYF) and Everyday Evangelism (EV2). Students who successfully complete the program will be eligible to serve as a trainer the following semester. After the successful completion of the semester, students will receive trainer status. Students will participate in visitation (on-the-job training sessions) under the direction of a trainer who has completed the first semester of evangelism training.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

The following required texts are available in a kit from BMATS:

- Evangelism Explosion (4th edition)

  by Bill Hull, ISBN # 0801066220

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

   These are found on pages 7, 11, 15, 19, 23-24, 29, and 33.

3. Listen to the Conversational Gospel CD at least three times a week prior to class.

4. Memorize the EV2 Learning cards 1-3, 5, 8, 10, 12, 15 and 18 prior to July 23, 2012. Be very familiar with the concepts given on cards 4, 6, 7, 9, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 17 of the EV2 learning cards prior to July 23, 2012. (Note the first pages are white in color and the second are gray.)
7. Take course exam(s).
8. Keep a personal journal of all visits. The journal should include the name of the person visited, your level of participation in the visit, the result of the visit, and the follow up steps taken to minister to the prospect. Due August 10, 2012.
10. Read The Master Plan of Evangelism by Robert Coleman and answer the questions in the study guide at the back of the book. Fill in the answers in the book and turn in the book the first day of class, July 23, 2012. The book will be returned to you.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. Students should be able to identify and articulate primary elements of the Gospel.
2. Students should be able to communicate the EE Gospel presentation during field opportunities.
3. Students should be able to serve as an EE trainer in subsequent evangelism courses at the seminary and/or in a local church or ministry context.
4. Students should be able to identify classic literature in the field of evangelism.

SCHEDULE: Classes will meet throughout the week beginning Monday at 9:00 A.M. and should conclude at noon on Friday. Class sessions will also be held on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights.

GRADING: Attendance is mandatory for the successful completion of the program. Grades will be based on attendance, mastery of all assigned exam scores, and completion of assigned written material and mastery of the EE presentation.

Changes may be made when announced during regularly scheduled class periods. See Pages 44 and 47 of the Catalog for attendance and refund information. Absences and tardies will be used to determine grades according to the catalog. Assignments must be turned in on time to receive maximum credit earned (i.e., items turned in late will have a reduced grade). Please avoid dominating classroom discussion and answering cell phones during class.
