Course Description:
This course explores biblical principle and experiential learning theorist as they relate to the overall philosophy and practice of disciple-making within Christian ministries and religious education. Special attention is given to theological reflection and skills needed for developing personal faith and strategies for disciple-making through study of selected spiritual disciplines such as bible study, prayer, and worship. Attention is given to both classical and contemporary literature regarding disciple-making.

Course Objectives
1. The student should come to an understanding of the importance of spiritual growth, experience personal spiritual growth, and comprehend the biblical background for the concept of helping-others to grow in Christian discipleship.
2. The student should interact cognitively, affectively, and experientially with the spiritual disciplines and achieve the objectives listed in each discipline of the DiscipleWay curriculum.
3. Through theological reflection, the student should integrate methods and principles into his/her own disciple making process.

Course Requirements

1. Personal Spiritual Discipline. — 25%
   Attend DiscipleWay Training (June 13-17, 2016) and Complete the DiscipleWay lessons. Complete the DiscipleWay lessons and other assignments provided during the class.

2. Required Reading — 30%
   After reading each of the assigned texts (Attebery, Whitney, Eimes), write a reflection paper of two to three (2-3) double-spaced pages describing the insights you gained from the reading. These papers are not to be summaries of the texts read. They are to consist of your reflection on and reaction to the reading as you describe how you were moved or motivated by it. Of course, it may be necessary to provide some description of the passages or ideas that were particularly important to you. (Due June 17, 2016)

3. Exam — 25%

4. Reflection Paper — 20%
   The student will write a 5-7 page, double-spaced, reflection paper regarding discipleship. Three questions need to be answered in this reflection paper:
   1) What has been your experience with discipleship in the past?
   2) What is your understanding of true biblical discipleship?
   3) How effective is your church in making disciples, and how could your church improve in the area of disciple making? (Due July 15, 2016)
