

Application Agreement

I promise, in submission to the Holy Spirit's guidance, that if admitted to BMA Seminary I will at all times conduct myself as a Christian, faithfully and diligently apply myself to the studies as required by the Seminary curriculum, promptly meet all financial and other obligations, carefully observe the rules and regulations as set forth by the Seminary and its faculty, and submit to the authority of the faculty and administration.

I affirm that the facts in my application and accompanying biographical statements or other attached statements are true to the best of my knowledge. Should any of the facts contained in this application, accompanying biographical statements or other attached statements (i.e. address, marital status, criminal accusations/convictions, citizenship or immigration status, employment) change at any time I am a student at the BMA Seminary, I will inform the BMA Seminary in writing as soon as possible.

I understand that false information given on the application is grounds for dismissal or denial of admission.

I understand that the recommendations provided by my references as part of my application are not part of my educational record and I waive my right to view them.

I hereby authorize Baptist Missionary Association Theological Seminary to obtain a criminal background check. I agree to furnish additional information about prior arrests, investigations, and convictions upon request.

I have read and agree to abide by the regulations contained in the Student Handbook.
